

BUCKET LIST

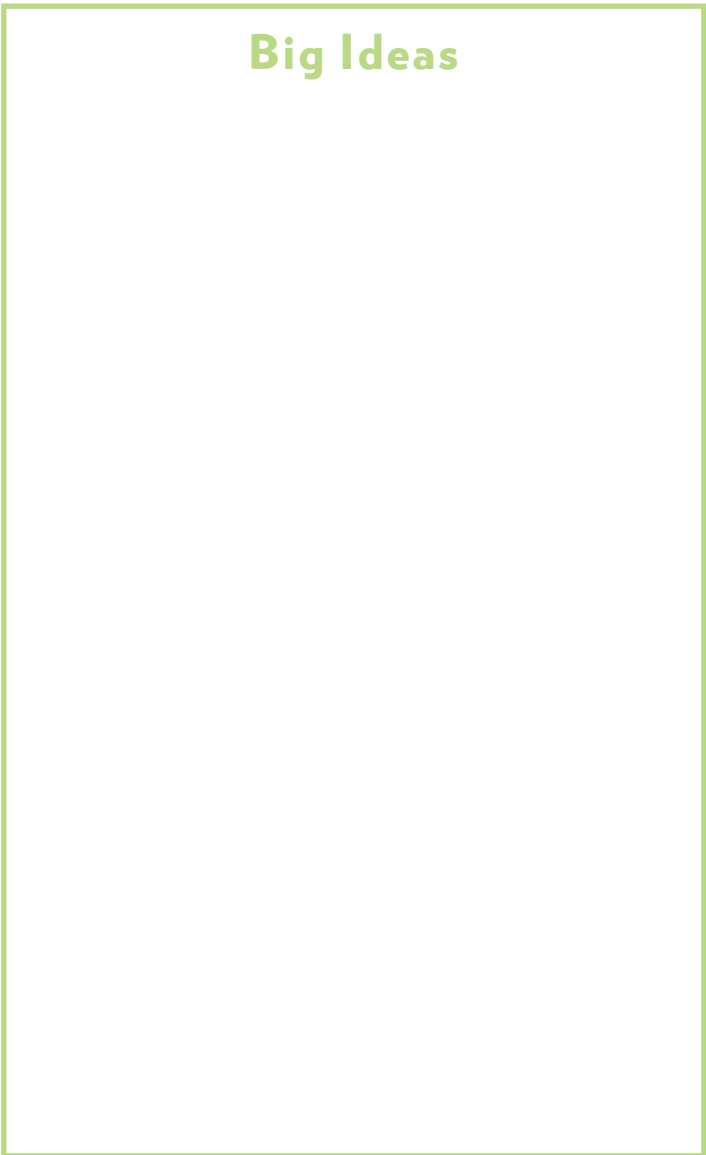

FOR FAMILY ADVENTURE

Goals are great – especially when it comes to family adventures. Whether you dream of visiting every national park or setting aside one day a week for local exploring, gather your family to chat about the adventures you want to tackle together and list here.

Little Ideas

Big Ideas

Share your Bucket List for Family Adventures with #FamilyTrails

READY TO HIT THE TRAIL?

Let's get the conversation rolling! Wherever your bucket list leads, these tidbits will inspire great family conversations and memory making along the way.

What kind of natural wonder would you like to experience? (i.e. mountains, ocean, desert, forest)	What's a family tradition you want to start?	Eat one thing in the entire world, what would it be?
What type of weather is your favorite? What places have that kind of climate?	What is something new you can show your child? You can show your parent?	What are your top three must-see state or national parks and forests?
Where could you go to experience different cultures in your community?	What's something you can collect from each of your adventures?	Where is one place you want to go to that you can walk to? One place you can drive to?
Parents, what was your favorite activity to do as a kid? Can you recreate it for your child?	Where could you experience a sunrise or sunset for the first time?	What is one activity you want to do in each season - Spring? Summer? Fall? Winter?
If you have a whole day off to do anything, what does your perfect day look like?	List a few pieces of local art you've always wanted to inspect up close.	What's a rainy day activity you want to do together?
What's the best place nearby to watch the stars?	What's the best place to spot wildlife near you?	Where could you pack a picnic and eat?
If you were going to give a new friend a tour of your hometown, what spots would you include?	Where is the BEST view in your hometown?	What museum or library would you like to visit?
What country would you like to visit? Can you practice a couple phrases in that language?	What's a view you want to see outside your hometown?	What's a family activity you could do to help give back/volunteer?
If you could be a scientist for a day, what topics do you have the most questions about?	How many national historic landmarks are in your town?	What's something you want to take a photo of?
Can you find a Citizens Science project nearby that interests you? (http://www.zooniverse.org)	What places are significant to your family / family history?	How many states do you want to visit?

No bucket? No problem. Check out this tutorial for folding your own paper bucket! www.familytrails.com/bucket